

Budget Travel

Vacations for Real People

Rediscover Mexico

Abundant sunshine, exhilarating beauty, and new adventures await throughout Mexico. Check out sweet deals and promotions that will have you digging out that suitcase faster than you can say, "hasta la vista."

All-inclusive perfection at Palace Resorts

Unsurpassed Value

Right now, people are looking for ways to save, from the supermarket checkout to the airport check-in. When it comes to travel, an all-inclusive resort is a practical way to keep spending in check—without feeling trapped by a budget. At Palace Resorts, the up-front price covers accommodations, activities, fine dining, and top-shelf drinks—with no hidden costs. Consistently ranked among the world's top all-inclusives, Palace Resorts has redefined the standard for luxury escapes in Mexico and the Dominican Republic with the ultimate budget-friendly getaway that leaves you feeling like a prince, not a pauper.

Take advantage of great opportunities to save when you book a package at any Palace Resort in Mexico. Now through December 15, receive an airfare discount of up to $400 for travel by December 31, 2009, depending on how many nights you stay; for example, book a stay of three to four nights for a $100 airfare discount per room; book five to six nights for a $200 airfare discount; and book seven or more nights for a $400 airfare discount.

Pick up the keys to the palace when you reserve now at www.palaceresorts.com or call (866) 280-6575. ●