

The New York Times Style Magazine

Life Needs the Caribbean!

Winter has only just begun and the Caribbean is looking more and more tempting by the day.

Palm-shaded beaches, poolside cocktails and spiritual spas are only part of the allure.

This year, the siren call of the islands is even louder thanks to unprecedented deals and packages, dozens of new resorts and adventures so exciting they will stay fresh in your memory until spring.

A sea-kayaking visitor glides across the crystal waters off Anguilla.

the / zimmerman / agency

(continued)

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC: The next big news in the DR will be the opening of the Moon Palace Casino, Golf & Spa Resort (palaceresorts.com) next spring. The 1,791-room oceanfront resort will have a casino, a signature Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course and a 60,000-square-foot spa.