Mexico's Best Golf Courses

Many golf courses in Latin America have been built as resort amenities in spectacular vacation destinations. You will often find magnificent five-star hotels attached to the top golf get-away spots in Mexico, Costa Rica, and South America. Many Cabo hotels, for example, have golf as their main draw.

Moon Palace Golf and Spa – Riviera Maya: Jack Nicklaus designed the 27 holes here. There are three courses – Jungle, Lake, and Dune. Created on a natural wetland, the courses are home to birds, iguanas, and the occasional crocodile.
