Jack Nicklaus signature golf course at Moon Palace in Cancun

After I lounged lazily in my hammock on my balcony, I took time to swing my rented clubs at the Moon Palace's Jack Nicklaus golf course, a deceptively challenging course. When I wandered around the pool area, near the main building, I happily discovered a carnival-like atmosphere, with clowns, balloons and locals selling their ware. Simultaneously, a barefoot couple shared their vows on the beach to a handful of witnesses.
